I have written 10 Dutch and 10 English children books free to download all on boogeybooks

Hope to see you there!

What is the name of your latest book and what inspired it?

The story of Auch Claw and the boogeywiggle!

And the idea came from me when I was fighting an excavator during my job! I tore two tendons while I was fighting the excavator and that was the inspiration for a Auch Claw book series...

Do you have any unusual writing habits?

I start writing at 6am and I finish until I had enough pages... Sometimes that's 30/40+ pages sometimes that's only 10 pages....

But I cannot write without coffee!

What authors, or books have influenced you?

I started as B.J Starink the author of serial killer nightmares and then I've written an horror children book... With this horror children read aloud book I've helped 4 children overcome their nightmares of the boogeyman...

And that was the start of the boogeyman beater club...

If you just take Nathan for a role model, he suffered from night terrors and nightmares for his entire life and went through therapy for 5 years straight...

He took medication and nothing helped but then I've written the children horror read aloud book and two years passed but he didn't get a single nightmare!

What are you working on now?

I'm currently working on the Auch Claw book series and part one and three is written while I'm halfway through part two and part four remains unwritten....

What is your best method or website when it comes to promoting your books?

Depends on the price of the marketing cause I'm not a rich boogeyman and I might write 20 books but all free books, so I don't get any money coming in!

So for now I say awesomegang.com and whamssoft.com

Do you have any advice for new authors?

No matter how much you think you fail, just continue and fall! I've started writing as B.J Starink
